“ Bebe, I have known you since the day I was born. I got the news tonight and it was a total shock to us. I know i didn't come to see you as often as i should have or called but you knew that i loved you and you was always my godmother. I know you are with my PoP again. I will always remember the days of going out to eat to barnhills, homework, cheetos in a can,(that you kept pencils in) unicorns everywhere, snowman. You going shopping and showing us all the new stuff you would buy. Walking with you and my grandma, taking us treat or treating. Just walking in your door an being called peepeyes never by my real name. Lord knows I could go on and on. You was family and my safe place when home sucked. Thank you for always being there to pick me up from school an helping me do whatever I needed done. I love you hug my pop and grandma for me.

“ Rita, I will never forget the times we would go to thrift stores with Carolyn. My how much fun we had making fun of ugly clothes & shoes and anything else we thought looked awful! You were spunky, sweet, outspoken and a beautiful friend. You were also my purple twin. I'll never look at the color purple without thinking of you. I love you sweet lady. I won't tell you goodbye but rather see you later as I will see you again some day.

“ Rita I miss you so much and the way you could talk for hours on the phone and how you would tell me " I love you" like 10 times before you would hang up the phone!!! My favorite memory was when I took you shopping we went to Walmart and then we went and got lunch and just spent the day together. And how you would let me call you my grandmother. And the many many Uno games!!! You were a true blessing and I miss you so much. I know you are in heaven with the Lord so I won't say goodbye Instead, see you soon Rita!! Love you!!!

“ Rita I miss you more everyday.I miss talking to you several times a day and telling each other goodnight.I miss the way you would call me honey.And how much energy you had.You were about the only one that could walk as fast as me.And I miss how you always called Walter your boyfriend and said ask my boyfriend if he loves me.And he would say I love her more.And how you loved my kids.You were always in my life since I was born.But since you lost Butch you were there everyday.Even if it was just on the phone.I worried about you walking to Jerry's snow cone.And you would have me order you pizza usually on Sunday.I always worried about you not eating enough.I never dreamed that the last time we said goodnight on that Thursday would be the last time I would hear your voice. I think about you everyday.I can't believe that I will have to stand there at a casket and say goodbye for good.I LOVE YOU.And we will talk again just not in the same way.RIP sweet lady.
