“ Dave, my brother-in-law, will be missed so much. He did always keep us laughing when we got together and it is so true that he was always there to help you when you needed him. He came to my rescue so many times! He was lucky in that he was so loved by all of his family and my heart breaks for all of them.

“ Robert was such an easy person to make friends with. I only knew him less than two years before he passed away, but felt like I had known him all my life. I considered him a dear friend. I will truly miss him and always was a pleasure to see him at the coffee shop on Friday's, that is when he felt like coming. Farewell My Friend, may you rest in peace!
