“ Susan you were the person who always asked how my kids and I were doing. I'm really gonna miss those little things. My favorite memory of you was in Kingsway. I saw you throwing food on the grass but there were no animals around. I asked politely what you were doing. And you said "Im just feeding the birds and any other of Gods creatures that might need it. I loved you immediately . I'm happy to celebrate your life tomorrow, I hope you're breathing well now

“ To her daughters I am so sorry that you have lost your mom and my heart and prayers go out to you - I could hear how much she loved you through her messages and she was so excited about her new grandchild I grew up one house away from her and have more memories than I could ever share - her laugh was contagious and

I am so sorry it's been so many years since I've seen her - I was grateful to pick up like we had never been apart on facebook since I had moved from Memphis - there are many things that take me back to the days we were inseparable. All those memories I will hold in my heart - she was a very special friend

“ Susan, was always thinking of others. She was so passionate about her love of all animals. I was honored to be called a friend by her. She was loved by many. Her children were her world!
I'm will miss her more than I can express.
I feel at peace knowing Susan was a child of God.
Sincerely, Paula Lowery

“ So very sad to hear of Susan’s death. Her parents and my parents were long time Navy friends and I grew up with visits from Susan and her mom and dad whenever our fathers’ travels allowed. In the last few years Susan and I reconnected on Facebook and I really enjoyed our conversations. Sending love and comfort to all. I’m so very sorry. Sarah (Sally) Langfur Stuart.
